

TERRACE 2005-2014

Over seven years 221 artists exhibited over 400 pieces of work in this transformed, former wasteland in East London.
Outdoors and exposed to the elements the works shifted, faded, broke, rotted, remained and in some cases, disappeared.
The show only opened for the Private View and the works would then remain in place and be added to for the following year's show.
